</tbody>
</table>

(2) Calculation:
- Each student has 82 points as basic points at the beginning of each semester.
- Class teacher has the authority to add/deduct 0~4 points.
- The Head of Department has the authority to add/deduct 0~4 points.
- 3 points will be rewarded to students who do not miss out any classes.
- Marks will be awarded for rewards and deducted for punishments and truancy/absenteeism.
- The total points above added together will be the student’s conduct scores.

(3) Absenteeism, Merit/demerit checking procedure
I. Log in to the University Information System (http://www.is.cgu.edu.tw/portal/DesktopDefault.aspx), type in your student ID number and password (ARC number) to check absenteeism, merit/demerit status and also conduct grades.
II. Students should check absenteeism and merit/demerit status regularly. If there are any problems with the information shown, students should notify the Student Guidance Section during the working hours (8:30-17:00). All notifications should be made before the 18th week.

3. Emergency Relief Fund and Other Related Aids
(1) Ministry Of Education Emergency Relief Fund:
Students can apply for the Emergency Relief Fund from the Ministry of Education if they meet the following criteria:
I. Students who have had an accident or suffered from a major disease (Hospitalized for more than 1 week, deceased or in any situation that can be considered as major disease/injury.)
II. Students whose family members suffered through a major crisis or catastrophe (Loss of parents, major disease, Act of God, etc) which has caused the students to lose economic support from their family.

(2) Student Emergency Relief
   The University will still provide aid to students who suffer from one of the above-mentioned even if the students cannot meet the criteria set by the Ministry Of Education Emergency Relief Fund.

(3) Chang Gung University Student Emergency Relief Fund:
   If a class teacher or tutor pays a visit to students who are hospitalized/injured, relief fund or financial aid can be requested (within a week).

4. Demerit record cancelling procedure
   For those students who committed minor violations, they can apply for demerit record cleaning. If the student makes the same mistake again after their record is cleaned, they cannot apply for the procedure anymore and heavier punishment will be imposed.

5. Traffic Safety Talk
   Undergrads who are interested in applying for the motorcycle parking pass are required to attend the traffic safety talk. Eligible students then can apply at the Office of General Affairs. The university will organize the “Motorcycle Safety Awareness Seminar” twice annually. For further information, please refer to the Student Guidance Section on the University website. Students only need to attend the talk once.
